

PROJECT: GET IT DONE TOGETHER

Mariama Jordan

Based in Boston, Massachusetts, Mariama Jordan, is the Corporate Wellness Director for the Back Bay Wellness and Fitness Center.

She is responsible for oversight of the gym and brings her passion and enthusiasm to support employees' health and wellness initiatives through teaching classes, training clients, and hosting wellness programs.

Her goal is to inspire a healthy lifestyle to all John Hancock employees and deliver on her promise that movement not only makes your body feel good but is a vital component to self-care and overall success.
