- C. Grover tells Percy that he thinks Percy mailed Medusa's head back to Olympus to impress his dad and Percy disagrees. What do you think? Have you ever tried to ever wanted to impress someone you didn't know? Or make them proud of you?
- D. Grover uses a car wash to create a rainbow to send a message. Where else could they have gone? What other items could they have used?
- E. Annabeth tells Percy that Ares needs his help because he has strength but not enough brains. What other tasks can you think of that require physical strength and intelligence... not just one or the other?
- F. Percy has a lot of weird dreams. What do you think they are – premonitions? Fear? Something else?
