

Email: [Text redacted]@yahoo.com.hk
Telephone: +852 [Text redacted]
Fax: +852 [Text redacted]
Date: March 2015

Prince Albert, SK S6V 2P6

Hi Dear,

My name is [Text redacted], Chief Financial Officer, Manulife Asset Management Limited here in Hong Kong; I have ask a friend coming to Canada to post this letter on my behalf. I have URGENT and discreet business proposal for you that shall benefit us immensely should you choose to participate.

Before I reveal any sensitive information it is important I state categorically that, all privilege information concerning my proposal and this business transaction is treated with utmost confidentiality due to source of funds.

These funds which sums up to USD$8.75 Million United States Dollars are currently in our client segregated account in relation to one of our private client late [Text redacted] (Deceased) who passed away 5 years ago. Hence, the reason why I have contacted you is because you share the same name with the deceased which is very important in securing the above mentioned funds.

These funds are held with our prime brokers which is an offshore bank here in Hong Kong. With your permission, I shall give step by step explanation on why I need your assistance and also the source of funds. Further information on how we shall proceed legally to obtain these funds will be provided in due course once I ascertain your genuine intentions and willingness to assist.

Should you be interested, then I will like hear from you the soonest time possible via my contact details above to enable me provide you with more details on how we are to proceed. I anticipate and look forward to a successful business relationship with you.

Yours faithfully

[Text redacted]