John is an expert on collecting customer loyalty rewards. He gets stamps for his coffee, points with his lunch, and extras by tapping his credit card. But the perks from his Manulife Personal Plan are his favorite. With the Member Reward Program, John's $25,000 retirement savings earned him Silver-level status and a cash bonus deposited every year into his Manulife Personal Plan account without him having to lift a finger.

The best part is the more he saves, the bigger his reward. To help give John an even larger bonus, we automatically add up all the money from all his Manulife accounts. Now he's reached the Silver plus reward level.

But John won't stop there. He links his partner's Manulife account, and the new combined total moves the couple up to Gold level. To continue earning even more, John sets up automatic contributions and moves his bank TFSA over to his Manulife Personal Plan.

John earns rewards on his savings every month, and on his account anniversary, the Member Reward Program deposits money into his Manulife Personal Plan account. His savings keep growing, and with the Member Reward Program, they can grow even faster, getting him closer to his goals.

When John leaves his job and starts receiving retirement income, his rewards keep working. He stays at the same rewards level and continues to get a yearly savings bonus, even as he takes out money to travel, take up a new hobby, and just relax. Reach your savings goals even faster with the Manulife Personal Plan Member Reward Program.
